BIBLE STORY (15 minutes)

Introduction:

Our story today is about a man that had been blind from the time he was born. Jesus told His disciples that it wasn't because of sin that the man was blind or because of something he or his parents had done wrong. God would use the man's blindness to display the work of God in this man's life.

Read John 9: 1-12

Discussion Questions:

1. In our story today how long had the man been blind? (From birth)
2. What did Jesus make with spit/saliva? (Mud)
3. What did Jesus do with the mud that He made? (Put it on the blind man's eyes)
4. Where did Jesus tell the blind man to go wash? (The pool of Siloam)
5. What happened when the man followed Jesus' instructions? (He was healed and could see for the first time)
6. For the very first time the man could see family, friends and the beauty of the world around him. Do you think he was happy? (Yes, very happy!)
7. When people asked the blind man how he was healed what did he say? (He told them that Jesus healed him)

CLOSING ACTIVITY

Tell the children that many people are blind today and they don't even know it because they are spiritually blind. People that are spiritually blind do not care about God. Help me come up with a list of things that can help the spiritual blind to see. (Ask God to come into their lives, Praying to God, Reading the Bible, Sing songs of worship, Go to church)

Orange You Special

by Craig

God created people who are different, but all are special in His eyes. A sweet Activity.

Materials:

Bag of oranges
(one orange for each child)

Duration:

Approx. 10 minutes

Preparation:

None

What you will do during class:

Place all the oranges in a basket, bowl or bag, and have the children come and take one orange back to their seat. Inform them to take good care of their orange, not to eat it, make marks on it, squeeze it etc. When everyone has an orange, have the children carefully examine their orange. Tell them to look for anything that would help them tell their orange from any other. Then, after a few minutes, collect all the oranges lay them out on another table. Let the children come up and see if they can pick out the same orange they had before.

Note: for younger children, it may help to draw different faces on the oranges so they can tell the oranges apart. For an example of a group of oranges with faces, click here

What you will say:

Like these oranges, all of us are different in one way or another. However we are all made by God, and He knows each one of us from top to bottom, inside and out. God knows everything about us, and never gets us confused. We are very special to Him and He wants us to love one another no matter how someone looks or acts. An orange is sweet no matter who eats it. Therefore, we should be nice to others no matter who they are. Let us go ahead now and eat our orange.
